

Interest in Peace?

Is there peace in the world? What is peace? Is it subjective? Is there some objectivity? Peace within and peace outside are directly related? If there is no peace in the mind, there is no peace in the society - so there cannot be peace in the world. So peace in the mind is the first step to peace in the world.

What is peace in mind? - focus on a psychological definition

Peace in the world - Balance of four E's

Peace inside - understanding self (through meditation)
